

MHD

MAINE HOME + DESIGN

THE INTERIOR DESIGN ISSUE

20 PROJECTS THAT PROVE
THERE'S MORE TO MAINE
THAN COASTAL STYLE

RUSTIC MEETS REFINED

A BETHEL SKI CHALET
BUILT FOR WINTER GETAWAYS

PEACE AND QUIET

THE PERFECT CAMP
FOR A FLY-FISHING COUPLE

+

AN OLD PORT SHOP
THAT'S PART RETAIL,
PART ATELIER

Mainstay at Mélange

BY DAHER INTERIOR DESIGN

Interior design studio Daher Interior Design, led by mother-son duo Paula and Clayton, completed a gut renovation of the former Market Day building at 135 Port Road in Kennebunk's Lower Village last year. To celebrate the studio's expansion into Maine, along with the opening of its new retail outpost, Mélange, MH+D invited architects, designers, real estate agents, and builders to mix and mingle among the store's regionally and globally sourced home accessories, lighting, bespoke upholstery, and artwork. Complimentary bites and beverages were provided by Experience Maine and Maine Events Co. MH+D

1. The exterior of Mélange; the building's renovation was completed by Reidson Corporation and Adams and Beasley Associates, and the windows are by Marvin Design Gallery by Eldredge. 2. Guests mingle inside Mélange's 3,000-square-foot retail and studio space in Kennebunk. 3. Paula and Clayton Daher, the mother-son pair behind Daher Interior Design. 4. Bob and Molly Grosse; David Duncan Morris, director of the residential studio at Woodhull; Amanda Cleary, manager of sales and marketing at Woodhull. 5. Lukasz Szczerbinski; Clayton and Paula Daher; John and Olivia Daher of Kennebunkport's Shoebox and Co. 6. Ted Carter, president of Ted Carter Inspired Landscapes, and Steve Tucker, founder of Tucker and Tucker Associates. 7. Don Coburn, owner of Coburn Fine Homes, and Paula Daher. 8. Aurora Goodland and Connor Roemlein, president and managing director at Den Studio